The Government of Iceland and the Government of Jersey, desiring to supplement the Agreement for the exchange of information relating to tax matters concluded on 28 October 2008 by concluding an Agreement for the avoidance of double taxation on individuals with respect to taxes on income,

have agreed as follows:

Article 1
INDIVIDUALS COVERED

This Agreement shall apply to individuals who are residents of one or both of the Parties.

Article 2

1. The existing taxes to which the Agreement shall apply are:
 - a) in the case of Iceland:

As regards the application of the Agreement at any time by a Party, any term not defined therein shall, unless the context otherwise requires, have the meaning that it has at that time under the law of that Party for the purposes of the taxes to which the Agreement applies, any meaning under the applicable tax laws of that Party prevailing over a meaning given to the term under other laws of that Party.

Article 4 RESIDENT

1. For the purposes of this Agreement, the term “resident of a Party” means in respect of an individual any individual who, under the laws of that Party, is liable to tax therein by reason of his domicile, residence or any other criterion of a similar nature. - b) if the Party in which he has his centre of vital interests cannot be determined, or if he has not a permanent home available to him in either Party, he shall be deemed to be a resident only of the Party in which he has an habitual abode;

2. In Jersey double taxation shall be avoided as follows:

Subject to the provisions of the laws of Jersey regarding the allowances of credit against Jersey tax and tax payable in a territory outside Jersey (which will not affect the general principle hereof):

- (i) subject to the provisions of sub-paragraph (iii), where a resident of Jersey derives income which, in accordance with the provisions of this Agreement, may be taxed in Iceland, Jersey shall allow as a credit from the Jersey tax on the income of that resident, an amount equal to the income tax paid in Iceland;
- (ii) such deduction shall not, however, exceed that part of the income tax, as computed before the credit is given, which is attributable to the income which may be taxed in Iceland;
- (iii) where a resident of Jersey derives income which, in accordance with the provisions of this Agreement shall be taxable only in Iceland, Jersey may include this income in the tax base, but shall allow as a credit from the Jersey tax that part of the income tax which is attributable to the income derived from Iceland.S

The case must be presented within three years from the first notification of the action resulting in taxation not in accordance with the provisions of the Agreement.

2. The competent authority shall endeavour, if the objection appears to it to be justified and if it is not itself able to arrive at a satisfactory solution, to resolve the case by mutual agreement with the competent authority of the other Party, with a view to the avoidance of taxation which is not in accordance with the Agreement. Any agreement reached shall be implemented notwithstanding any time limits in the domestic law of the Parties.
